Message from the Mayor

With a perfect climate, a massive agricultural sector and fresh produce right at our fingertips, it's no wonder the Bundaberg Region is fast becoming known for being a mecca of fresh flavour.

It's an area where you can sample all of the best food from paddock to plate, from sea to serve and from the factory to your doorstep.

It really is an eye opener when you consider the broad range of fresh fruit and vegetables we produce, not to mention the availability of delicious seafood and the amazing beverages that are brewed and bottled locally.

Bundaberg Regional Council is again thrilled to deliver the annual Bundy Flavours event, a festival which truly allows us to play to our strengths.

The focus is on wonderful, fresh food, how to grow it and how to prepare it.

It's also an opportunity to promote what is so readily available but often undiscovered right here in the Bundaberg Region.

Use this festival as your food discovery mission and I trust you will thoroughly enjoy all that our region has to offer.

Mayor, Bundaberg Region
